

Long-Term Parking – Pine Street, DPW 13-06

Pervious concrete placed in parking stalls. The rough surface allows storm water run-off to drain below surface and percolate groundwater instead of leaving the surface and draining off site. It also filters the water that goes into the ground (4/14/2015)

Contractor's crew installing pervious concrete (4/14/2015)