Día de los Muertos Shrines Next in this Fall's Make It @ Your Library Series

The Paso Robles City Library invites the public to create a miniature Day of the Dead "shrine" on Saturday, October 7, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Shrines will feature a "sugar" skull drawing, beads and sequins to represent flowers, and a heart (el Corazón) to symbolize love for the deceased. Participants are welcome to bring any other small items (no bigger than 1" high) to include.

Day of the Dead or Día de los Muertos, is a celebration in which family and friends gather to remember those who have passed away and to help support their spiritual journey by creating altars that include photos of loved ones, possessions that belonged to them, and some of their favorite foods, along with symbolic sugar skulls and marigolds.

Visit the Library Calendar beginning Monday, September 18 to sign up. Space is limited. Family groups are welcome, however due to the nature of the tools and materials used, children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

You're Never Too Old to Play with LEGOS Creative fun for the entire family!

Come to the Library's LEGO Build in the Story Room on Tuesday, October 10, from 4:00-5:00 pm and see if you've got what it takes to be a Master Builder. Each build will have a different theme and challenge to put your building abilities to the test. Those that complete the challenge will see their creations on display in the Library following the build.

City Library Adult Coloring Club Who says coloring is just for children?

With all the summer craziness just beginning, come join the Library's Adult Coloring Club on Thursday, October 12, 6:00-8:00 pm, and relax.

Why color? According to ABC News, coloring provides quiet and focus, reducing stress by stimulating the part of the brain that causes relaxation. The process of coloring has the same therapeutic qualities as meditation. Coloring in a group allows you to add socializing to the mix while you create. During the Library's Coloring Club, staff provide coloring tips and challenges to add to the fun. Already a part of the coloring phenomenon? Feel free to bring your own materials and join in the fun at the Library. No signups are necessary for the coloring club, and all materials are provided.

Under the Feet of Jesus by Helena Maria Viramontes Library Book Club's Good Read for October

Continuing with the theme of immigration and migration in California, the Paso Robles City Library Book Club's October title is Under the Feet of Jesus by Helena Maria Viramontes. Desperate to escape the despair, hopelessness, and hardship of the migrant-workers' existence, Estrella, a young Mexican-American migrant worker, fights back against a system that will do almost anything to keep her down. Infused with the beauty of the California landscape and shifting splendors of the passing seasons juxtaposed with the bleakness of poverty, this vividly imagined novel, so observant and full of wisdom, is worthy of the people it celebrates and whose story it tells so magnificently.

The discussion begins at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 19, in the Library Conference Room. For more information on the Library's Book Club or other adult programs, contact Karen Christiansen at 237-3870 or kchristiansen@prcity.com.
