National Volunteer Week Coming Up
Paso Robles City Council to Honor Volunteers

PASO ROBLES, CA – Each year, during National Volunteer Week, the City recognizes and celebrates the community's commitment to volunteerism, which has been a cornerstone of civic pride since the late 1880's. In 2016, 173 City Volunteers logged over 19,956 hours of service. The City recognizes that far greater than the monetary value of these efforts are the talent, service orientation, and enthusiasm volunteers bring to public service. It carries on our community's very proud tradition of volunteerism, strengthens the quality of today's citizenry, and helps position the City for the opportunities and challenges of tomorrow.

This year, National Volunteer Week is April 23-29 and, as is tradition, the City of Paso Robles is acknowledging and celebrating the community's commitment to civic engagement with a Volunteer Appreciation Reception and presentation during the City Council meeting on Tuesday, April 18, beginning at 6:00 pm in the City Council Chamber at 1000 Spring Street.

Light refreshments will be served. The public is welcomed. If you plan to attend the Volunteer Appreciation Reception, please RSVP to cityclerk@prcity.com.
